Resulting in poor memory, irritability, nervousness and intellectual exhaustion. It induces other forms of disease, such as epilepsy, heart disease, apoplexy, insanity, etc.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cures.

Mrs. Chas. A. Myers, 201 Hiram St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes Oct. 7, 1894: "I suffered terribly with severe headaches, dizziness, backache and nervousness, gradually growing worse until my life was despaired of, and try what we would, I found no relief until I commenced using Dr. Miles' Nervine. I have taken five bottles and believe I am a well woman, and I have taken great comfort in recommending all of my friends to use Nervine. You may publish this letter if you wish, and I hope it may be the means of saving some other sick mother's life, as it did mine."

VOTED AS THEY SHOULD.

Workmenmen Resist the Charge that They Were Corrupt.

Chicago Inter Ocean: One of the most satisfactory features of this memorable campaign was the response of the American workmen to the dastardly charge in the form of advice that they are hypocrites and liars. Almost as soon as his canvas opened Mr. Bryan and his supporters ostentatiously explained the manifestations of McKinley sentiment by workmen as a mere make-believe. That aspersions upon the character was a gross and wholly unwarranted insult.

Hardly had William J. Bryan started on his travels before he made a speech in which he interpreted the wearing of McKinley buttons by them as a mere trick to keep their jobs, and from that day to the very end his followers and strikers kept up the ding-dong about coercion, blind to the fact, apparently, that they were thus accusing laboring men, as a whole, of cowardice and fraud. There was hardly a voter in the country that did not know that he could not be coerced, thanks to the Australian ballot.

That the Australian ballot had been adopted in every state which was really contested was exceedingly fortunate, for it removes all doubt about the election being the free and independent action of the people. The humblest laborer, no matter how much his employer might wish to coerce him, was as independent in the voting booth as his employer. That little booth is the throne of a monarchy which is absolute, and the ballot there prepared and folded ready for deposit in the box is the acceptor of that monarchy.

The United States would have been put to open shame had the people shouted one way and voted another. We are not that kind of people. Four years ago a large majority of the workmen of the country made an egregious blunder, but they were mainly about it. Free trade and Democracy was their cry in the campaign. To be mistaken and to put that mistake into practical operation is a very different thing from acting a lie and being a sneak.

It is safe to say that no subsequent candidate for the presidency and his packers will undertake to win by urging the people to play a great big confidence game. The result of Tuesday cannot fail to have put an end to that sort of campaigning.

THE GOLD DEMOCRACY

Entitled to Great Credit for the Part that It Bore—Future of the Party.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The indebtedness of the Republican party to the gold Democracy for the great victory of Tuesday can never be estimated with any precision. It certainly cannot be measured by the vote cast for Palmer and Buckner in this or any other state. In proportion as the contest was supposed to be close, the percentage voting for that ticket would naturally be small. A half vote thrown away might be needed in determining the practical result. But even in states perfectly sure, like Vermont and Maine, a great many Democrats wanted the satisfaction of polling the fullest possible anti-Bryan ballot.

It is a matter of public congratulation that the citizens of this republic are not wrapped up in party but that if a political emergency comes they can rise to it. We found it so during the war; the votes of patriotism were heard above the clamor of partisanship. At that time the leadership of Stephen A. Douglas was a powerful factor. In this more modern instance there was no such individual leadership. Senator Hill, from the vantage ground of his brilliant but losing fight in the national convention, could have won distinction by leadership. So, too, President Cleveland had a great opportunity. Neither came out squarely in ringing support of McKinley and Harbort. We do not say this in criticism, but simply as one of the notable facts of the campaign. The gold Democrats were not sheep, requiring the crook of a shepherd to guide them to the fold. They knew their own business.

The future of the Democratic party is profoundly uncertain. It is not a question of name or machinery, but of issues. Should the vanquished give up free silver and go back to free trade, there would probably be a return of such men as Palmer and Morrison; but if, on the other hand, the Bryans, Tillmans, Altgelds, and Joneses hold the party organization to free silver for 1898 and 1900, then instead of having a third party, the sound money Democrats will probably come over to the Republican party. But, whatever the future may disclose, every one who rejoices in the election of McKinley should feel grateful to the sound money Democracy, especially to those who went the whole figure. The Republicans had the incentive of party goal, but the Democrats who broke away from Bryan and Bryanism severed strong ties of affiliation, and deserve the reward of public gratitude.

THE REGISTER'S TWADDLE

About Illegal Voting in this County—One Precinct Cited.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer. SIR:—In reading this morning's Register I notice an article which casts reflection on the honesty of the officers appointed to conduct the late election, and intended to create the impression that they permitted many illegal voters to vote. Now, I do not know anything about the other voting places, but I can say positively that at precinct No. 6, Washington district, not one illegal vote was cast, as all the other officers will testify, and yet look at the increase in the vote. In that precinct, in 1892, 186 votes were cast; in 1894, there were 237, and at the last election 277 votes are polled.

I would not have taken notice of the article referred to, but for the fact that I desire to set myself and all the other election officers, Democrats and Republicans, right.

WILLIAM H. MUEGGE,

Clerk precinct 6, Washington district.

FINANCE AND TRADE

The Features of the Money and Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Money on call easy at 3 1/2 per cent; last loan 4 per cent; closed at 3 1/2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 6 1/2 per cent. Sterling exchange firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at 4 1/2 per cent for demand and 4 1/2 per cent for sixty days. Posted rates 4 1/2 per cent and 4 1/2 per cent. Commercial bills 4 1/2 per cent. Bar silver 64 1/2 per cent. Silver certificates 65 1/2 per cent.

The stock market to-day, while less sensational than in the forenoon boom in Wednesday displayed, met strength, and the volume of business, which was better distributed, did not fall far short of that day's record.

The large number of hundred share lots dealt in was regarded as indicating a big short interest, and aggressive strength was displayed in the face of strenuous resistance to the rise by some professional bulls without stocks. Heavy coverings of shorts all along the line was a decided feature. The buoyancy of the market was evidenced in the low priced as well as the high priced specialties, while the usually spectacular speculations and industrials also participated in the improvements. This condition of the speculative temper was due to the dissipation of yesterday's disturbing rumors, and to the frequent successive reports of reviving industrial activity in nearly all branches of trade to the complete disappearance of apprehension regarding the financial outlook, the easier monetary rates and the distribution of dividends in coal properties. Speculative bonds were also sharply dealt in at material advances in prices; Sugar was quiet, and after a gain of 3/4 to 1 1/2, at the outset, fluctuated sharply between 11 1/2 and 11 3/4, closing at 11 3/4. The other industrials also fluctuated widely with Tobacco and Chicago Gas the most prominent. The closing was active at the best figures of the day.

Transactions in bonds were on a large scale and extensive fractions were scored in many issues. The sales were $3,800,000.

Governments moved up slightly on sales of $50,000.

In state issues $50,000 Virginia Centuries and Deferred certificates were traded in at slight gains.

Silver certificates were in demand and rose 1/4 per cent on transactions of $70,000.

The total sales of stocks to-day were $8,500,000.

Extending Post's London financial cablegram.

The stock markets were quiet, but good here to-day. Americans opened dull, but recovered and closed at the best.

The Paris and Berlin markets were good.
